

The Andover RFC Under 16's Squad are proud to host:

Ms Marbles & The Midwinter Murders

An interactive, light-hearted Murder Mystery Dinner Show

Friday 13th Oct, £30/ head. 7pm for Dinner at 7.30, Carriages at Midnight.
3 course meal and a Murder!!

We take you back to the 1950's:

A picturesque village,
a masked ball, a stately home,
a genteel cast and...oh no, here
we go again...murder!

Such is the popularity of our most celebrated character, the eccentric Ms Marbles, Psychic Investigator, she now appears in her second murder mystery.

The occasion is a Charity Masked Ball hosted by The Earl who is auctioning off the dresses of his former wives. The show is set in 1955 but will be invaded by TV detectives from other eras!

This light-hearted, memorable event takes place over a three course meal and our team of professional actors will thoroughly entertain you during and between courses. They hold the secret to the plot and will help you unravel the clues and solve the mystery that will unfold before your very eyes.

There are fancy dress opportunities, [1950's, Masked Ball, TV Detectives, Masquerade, Vintage and so on] but there is by no means any obligation. The shows are interactive to the level you choose and audience participation is welcome and encouraged...
...but not compulsory.

There will be chances for a few willing volunteers from the audience to spontaneously ham it up with the professionals in short bursts or, if you prefer, just sit back and enjoy the show going on around you.
